

2012 BETA CONVENTION
CODE OF CONDUCT CONTRACT
FOR STATE/NATIONAL CONVENTIONS

Please read, understand, sign, and turn in to the BETA sponsors this contract made between the BETA students, parents and sponsors for the upcoming BETA State and National Conventions to be held in Branson Missouri, March 9-10, 2012 and (if we qualify) at the National Convention held in Greensboro, North Carolina, June 27-30, 2012.

As sponsors, we are proud of each student and the accomplishment to this point. We foresee NO future problems with the students; however, we must cover all bases. The school district has a policy in place that we must abide by while at conventions as well as when traveling to and from the conventions. All students must adhere to the Malden R-1 high school rules and regulations, BETA code of ethics and this code of conduct.

The following are concerns we feel must be stressed: all students will be expected to stay with the group; you must not leave the group without permission. If you choose to leave (with parents only), you must have the parent SIGN you out. If this code of conduct, Malden R-1 school rules/regulations, or BETA code of ethics are violated: YOU WILL BE CONFINED TO YOUR ROOM UNTIL YOUR PARENT(S) CAN PICK YOU UP.

Student signature:

I, _____, agree to the contract and promise to be on my best behavior to represent our school district and still have a great time. (Students 18 and older must have parent signature as well. It is a school sponsored trip and we must have parent permission.)

Parent signature:

I, _____, have read this code and reviewed it with my child. In signing, I agree to pick up my child if problems arise.

Thank you for complying; have fun and good luck!
